The North Florida Community College Library complies fully with all of the provisions of the US Copyright Law (17 U.S.C.) and its amendments. The library supports the Fair Use section of the Copyright Law (17.U.S.C. 107), which permits and protects citizens to reproduce and to make other uses of copyrighted works for the purpose of teaching, scholarship, and research.

U.S. copyright law (Title 17, U.S. C.) prohibits the unauthorized reproduction or distribution of copyrighted materials, except as permitted by the principles of fair use. Users may not copy or distribute electronic materials (including electronic mail, text, images, programs or data) without the permission of the copyright holder. Responsibility for any consequences of copyright infringement lies with the users. The Library expressly disclaims any liability or responsibility from such use.

Assistance in printing or copying is available at the circulation desk from the library staff.
